..... in Rochester

CPYRGHT By JUDY BENNETT

AN ENGAGEMENT of wide social interest in Rochester is being announced this weekend in Vancouver, Wash. Mrs. Spencer Biddle of that city announces that her daughter, Miss Lydia Spencer Biddle of Washington, D.C., is the fiancée of B. Jenkins Middleton, also of Washington, D.C. He is the son of Mrs. E. Willoughby Middleton of Brunswick Street and the late Mr. Middleton.

A summer wedding is planned at the family home at Biddles' Landing on the Columbia River.

Miss Biddle is a graduate of the Catlin School, Portland, Ore. She received an honors degree from Bryn Mawr College and attended Oxford University. She is a former employe of the Central Intelligence Agency. Miss Biddle's father, the late Spencer Biddle of Vancouver, was the owner of lumber and ranching interests in Washington and Oregon.

Mr. Middleton is a graduate of Phillips Exeter Academy and Princeton University, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the University Cottage Club. He received his law degree from Harvard Law School in 1952 and is an attorney with the Export-Import Bank of Washington.
